

Unitask Appoints Dale D. Royal Chairman

Industry Veteran to take on Board Leadership role

Cincinnati, OH – February 15, 2009 Unitask Software, the leading provider of Oracle E-Business Suite Application solutions, today announced that Dale D. Royal would now serve as the Chairman of the Board in addition to his current role and responsibility as company CEO.

In making the announcement, Jonathan Murray, Managing Director of Early Stage Partners, noted that under Royal's direction, Unitask has been able to achieve a 44% growth in revenue from its core business in spite of a softening worldwide economy.

"Dale's appointment as Chairman, as well as that of CEO, is a natural extension and appropriate step for Unitask at this time", said Mr. Murray. "The growth this outstanding management team has been able to achieve suggests that the Company's products are well positioned to provide further growth, despite a global financial crisis. Customers are finding that Unitask products add value by enhancing productivity, cutting costs, and more."

Focused on the ability to "Do More – Pay Less" within the Oracle E-Business Suite marketplace, Unitask provides enterprise-class solutions that deliver business continuity and enhancement. With more than a decade of success, Unitask provides Output Management and Change Management solutions for a global Oracle E-Business Suite marketplace.
